- 4.4 Ancillary Services. We may, at Your request, engage a Subcontractor to undertake Ancillary Services. Ancillary Services will only be provided if they have been specifically agreed to by Us in writing and are included in Our quotation.
5. Delivery
- We shall not be bound to deliver the Goods except to You or the person authorised by You pursuant to clause 3.3. If We cannot deliver the Goods either because there is no authorised person there to receive them on Our arrival, or because We cannot gain access to the premises, or for any other reason beyond Our reasonable control, We will endeavour to contact You to obtain alternative instructions and We will be entitled to a reasonable additional charge for following any alternative instructions. If we cannot contact You or You do not provide alternative instructions that We can reasonably comply with, We will be entitled to unload the Goods into a warehouse, and will be entitled to charge an additional amount for storage and for the subsequent re-delivery of the Goods.
6. Storage Conditions
- 6.1 Inventory. We will prepare an inventory of Goods received for storage and will ask You to sign that inventory. You will be provided with a copy of the inventory. If You sign the inventory, or do not do so and fail to object to its accuracy within 7 days of receiving it from Us, the inventory will be conclusive evidence of the Goods received by Us. The inventory will disclose only visible items and not any contents unless You ask for the contents to be listed, in which case We will be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge.
- 6.2 Contact Address. You agree to advise Us of an address (either a physical address or email address or both) to which We can forward any notice or correspondence, and to promptly notify Us of any change of address.

- 6.5 Inspection of Goods in Store. You are entitled, upon giving Us reasonable notice, to inspect the Goods in store, but a reasonable charge may be made by Us for providing access to the Goods.
- 6.6 Removal From Storage. Subject to payment for the balance of any fixed or minimum period of storage agreed, You may require the Goods to be removed from store at any time on giving Us not less than 5 Business Days' notice. If You give Us less notice, We will still use Our best endeavours to meet your requirement, but shall be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge for the short notice.
- 6.7 Compulsory Removal and Disposal/Sale. You agree to remove the Goods from storage within 28 days of a written notice of requirement from Us to do so. - 6.8 Sale of Goods. For the purposes of preparing for the sale of the Goods under clauses 6.7 or 7.8 or otherwise as permitted by law, We are authorised by You to open any boxes in storage that are not marked in accordance with clause 3.7, to inspect and identify the contents and We may at Our discretion decide which contents will be offered for sale to the general public. At Our discretion, any items we do not offer for sale may be stored by Us for such period as We consider appropriate and We may invite You to collect those items from Us once We have been paid all moneys due by You to Us for Services provided by Us under this or any other agreement. If We fail to sell the Goods having offered them for sale at public auction or on Ebay or any similar platform, We may dispose of the Goods or donate them to charity.
- 6.9 Identification Documents. If any of the Goods comprise Identification Documents (in breach of clause 3.5) You irrevocably authorise Us to return any such Identification Documents to the government or other authority that issued those Identification Documents.

7. Charges and Payments
- 7.1 Variation of Work Required and Delay. If the work You ultimately require Us to do varies from the work for which a quotation or estimate has been given, as a result of information provided by You being incorrect or incomplete or due to Your change of mind, We will be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge.
- 7.2 Personal Document Surcharge. If more than 5% of the volume of the Goods is comprised of boxes or containers marked as containing Personal Documents, then We may require You to pay a surcharge, the amount of which will be advised at the time the Goods are collected by Us.
- 7.3 Force Majeure Event. If We are prevented from or delayed in undertaking the Services because of a Force Majeure Event, we will also be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge.
- 7.4 Alteration of Dates. If a date for the performance by Us of any Services is agreed upon in the quotation and acceptance or subsequently, and You require that date to be altered or the Goods are not available on that date, if We agree to provide the Services on an alternative date, We will be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge for any loss or additional expense occasioned by such alteration or unavailability.
- 7.5 Cancellation. You may cancel this Agreement before the Goods are collected by Us for transit, and We will promptly refund any deposit, provided that You give Us at least seven days' notice in writing before the scheduled date for collection. If you fail to give Us seven days' notice, We may retain any deposit paid by You.
- 7.6 Payment by Third Party. If You arrange with Us or instruct Us that Our charges are to be paid by a third party, and if that party does not pay the charges within 14 days of the date set for payment or, if no date is set for payment, within 14 days of the date of invoice, You agree to thereupon pay the charges.
- 7.7 Default Charges. If amounts are outstanding from You to Us for more than 30 days, We will be entitled to charge interest at the rate that is 4% above the cash rate published by the Reserve Bank of Australia from time to time, calculated on monthly rests.
- 7.8 Contractual Lien. All Goods received by Us will be subject to a general lien for any moneys due by You to Us relating to any Services provided by Us under this or any other agreement. Without prejudice to any other rights which We may have under this Agreement or otherwise at law, if any amounts have been outstanding for a period of 26 weeks, We may give 28 days' written notice to You of intention to sell, and if the outstanding amount is not paid within that period, We may: (a) at Your cost, SECURELY DESTROY ANY PERSONAL DOCUMENT; and (b) SELL ALL OR ANY OF THE GOODS that are not identified as Personal Documents in accordance with clause 3.7 by public auction or on Ebay or a similar online auction sale facility and exercise any other rights We have under clause 6.8 relating to the sale of the Goods and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the amount due and pay any balance to You.
8. Loss or Damage – Private Removals and Storage (where either You or the Consignee are not carrying on a business)
- 8.1 Australian Consumer Law. Except where You and any Consignee require the Services for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation, this Agreement will be subject to the guarantees set out in sections 60, 61 and 62 of the Australian Consumer Law including a guarantee that the Services will be rendered with due care and skill, and the following conditions of this clause 8 will apply.
- 8.2 Negligence. We will only be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods to the extent that Our negligence (including the negligence of any Subcontractor) caused or contributed to that loss or damage. We will not be liable for loss of, or damage to the Goods to the extent caused or contributed to by You or someone else that We are not responsible for at law.
- 8.3 Damage to Goods – Packaging. We will not be liable for damage to the Goods that occurs because of packing or unpacking that was not undertaken by Us or a Subcontractor.

- 8.5 Notification of Loss or Damage. You will be asked to sign an inventory or other documents at the conclusion of the transit and You are responsible at that time for confirming that all of the Goods have been delivered, there are no missing items or boxes and the Goods are in acceptable condition or to provide Us with details of any missing or damaged Goods. Any claim for loss or damage of Goods should be notified by You to Us in writing, or by telephone and later confirmed in writing, as soon as possible and within a reasonable time after the date of delivery. We will have the best chance of locating any misplaced items, or ascertaining the cause of damage, if that notification is given to Us within 2 Business Days.
9. Loss or Damage – Commercial Removals and Storage (where You and any Consignee are carrying on a business)
- 9.1 Application. If the Services are required by You for the purposes of a business, trade, profession or occupation in which You are engaged and the Goods are being delivered to a Consignee who is carrying on a business, trade, profession or occupation in connection with the Goods, the following conditions of this clause 9 will apply.
- 9.2 Negligence. We will only be liable for the proportion to which the loss or damage to the Goods is caused by or contributed to by Our negligence (including the negligence of any Subcontractor), and in any event that liability will be limited to $500 per item or package, or $10,000 in the aggregate in respect of all Goods moved or stored under this Agreement (whichever is the lesser).
- 9.3 Damage to Goods – Packaging. We will not be liable for damage to the Goods that occurs because of packing or unpacking that was not undertaken by Us or a Subcontractor.
- 9.4 Damage to Goods – Inherent Risk. Electrical and mechanical appliances, computer equipment, scientific instruments certain musical instruments and assembled flat pack furniture (unless it has been dismantled by You prior to collection) are inherently susceptible to suffer damage or disorder upon removal and We only agree to transport these sorts of Goods on the basis that We are not liable for damage to these Goods unless there is evidence of Our negligence, comprising visible external physical damage to the relevant Goods that has been caused by Us.
- 9.5 Consequential Loss. To the extent permitted by law, We will not be liable to You for any Consequential Loss associated with loss of or damage to Goods, or delay in delivery, misdelivery or non-delivery of Goods.
- 9.6 Circumstances where cap does not apply. The cap on liability set out in clause 9.2 will not apply to the extent that any loss of or damage to Goods is caused by Us engaging in malicious conduct, deliberate or wilful misconduct, fraud or criminal conduct.
- 9.7 Claims. You will be asked to sign an inventory at or other document at the conclusion of the transit and You are responsible at that time to confirm that all of the Goods have been delivered, there are no missing items or boxes and the Goods are in acceptable condition or to provide Us with details of any missing or damaged Goods. In circumstances where We are liable under this clause 9, notice of the claim must be given by You to Us as soon as practicable and written notice must be given within 14 days of the date of delivery, or, in the case of loss, the date upon which the Goods would ordinarily have been delivered, failing which We will have no further liability, unless You have a reasonable excuse for Your failure to give such written notice.
10. Value of the Goods
- 10.1 Inventory Value of Goods. In any claim for loss or damage to Goods, any estimate of the inventory and value of the Goods which You have provided to Us, whether for the purposes of insurance or otherwise, will be prima facie evidence of the value of any particular Goods, and of the total value of the Goods.
11. Insurance
- 11.1 Our Insurance. We offer to arrange for the Goods to be insured during transit and storage, and details of the type of insurance, the conditions and the rates are set out in Our quotation or will be provided on request. This insurance will only be arranged if You request Us in writing to do so (including by so indicating in Your written acceptance of Our quotation).
- 11.2 Other Insurance. You may, of course, arrange insurance with an insurer of Your choice.
12. Disputes
- 12.1 Notification of Dispute. If You or We consider that a dispute has arisen in relation to this agreement (either during the Services, or after they have been completed), written notice of the dispute will be given to the other party. Even if that notice is given, You and We must continue to perform any obligations under this Agreement.
- 12.2 Dispute Resolution. If You and We cannot resolve the dispute between Us, You are entitled to refer the dispute to the Australian Furniture Removers Association (telephone 1800 671 806) which has procedures for dispute resolution, and We, but not You, will be bound by the outcome of that referral.

The Policy does not cover:

- (b) if you do not comply with any Policy conditions detailed within this Policy.

Significant risks

This product may not match your expectations

This product may not match your expectations (for example, because an exclusion applies). You should read the PDS (Part one of this booklet) and the Policy terms and conditions (Part two of this booklet) carefully. Please ask your financial services provider if you are unsure about any aspect of this product.

Your sum insured may not be adequate

The maximum amount we will pay under this Policy will not, under any circumstances, exceed the total sum insured or any specified sum insured for an item.

A claim may be refused

We may refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim if you do not comply with the Policy conditions, if you do not comply with your duty of disclosure, or if you make a fraudulent claim.

The cost of this insurance Policy

The total premium is the amount we charge you for this insurance Policy. It includes the amount which we have calculated will cover the risk, and any taxes and government charges. The premium and any taxes and government charges will be shown on your Policy Schedule.

When calculating your premium we take a range of rating factors into account. These factors, and the degree to which they affect your premium, will depend upon the information you provide to us.

The following factors have a significant impact on the calculation of your premium:

- (a) sum insured,
- (b) if your household contents include valuable items such as paintings, works of art and antiques,
- (c) distance of transit,
- (d) if extended storage is required during the transit.

Premium payments are made prior to the commencement of the Policy. You should arrange your method of payment through your financial services provider. A quote for premium may be obtained from your financial services provider.

Taxation implications

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The Policy has provisions relating to GST. In summary, they are as follows, but please read the provisions in full. They can be found in the terms and conditions, under the heading 'How Goods and Services Tax affects any payments we make'.

The amount of premium payable by you for this Policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the maximum amount we pay.

Other taxation implications

There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend that you seek professional advice.

Cancelling your Policy

How you may cancel this Policy

You may cancel this Policy at any time prior to any removal of your insured property taking place, by giving notice to your financial services provider. You cannot cancel this Policy once any removal has commenced.

Provided the Policy is cancelled prior to the removalist starting to pack or move the insured property, we will refund to you the premium. The amount of the premium we refund to you will be less any non-refundable government fees, duties or charges.

If there are other people named as insured on your Policy, we may rely on a request from one insured to cancel your Policy.

How we may cancel this Policy

We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law (for example, failure to pay the premium by the due date or if you told us something that you knew to be incorrect or untrue during your application for cover) by informing you in writing.

We will give you this notice in person or send it to your address (including an electronic address) last known to us.

Cooling off period

If you change your mind about your Policy and haven't made a claim, you can cancel it within 21 days of the start date and we'll give you a full refund. If you cancel your Policy in these circumstances, you will have no cover under the Policy. To cancel your Policy within the cooling off period, notify your financial services provider electronically or in writing.

You can also cancel your Policy outside the cooling off period, see 'Cancelling your policy'.

If your Policy is for an event that will start and finish within the twenty one (21) days cooling-off period, you can only exercise your right before the event starts, or on expiry of the cooling-off period, whichever is the earlier. For example, for this home contents and personal property in transit insurance, the commencement of the transit is the event.

Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty, under both the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth), to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for, or
- is common knowledge, or
- we know or should know as an insurer, or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth) applies:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may avoid the contract from its beginning.

Where the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) applies:

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim.

1. This policy does not insure any loss, damage, liability, claim, cost or expense of whatsoever nature caused by, contributed to by, resulting from, arising out of, or in connection with a Communicable Disease or the fear or threat (whether actual or perceived) of a Communicable Disease regardless of any other cause or event contributing concurrently or in any other sequence thereto.
2. As used herein, a Communicable Disease means any disease which can be transmitted by means of any substance or agent from any organism to another organism where:
 - 2.1. the substance or agent includes, but is not limited to, a virus, bacterium, parasite or other organism or any variation thereof, whether deemed living or not, and
 - 2.2. the method of transmission, whether direct or indirect, includes but is not limited to, airborne transmission, bodily fluid transmission, transmission from or to any surface or object, solid, liquid or gas or between organisms, and
 - 2.3. the disease, substance or agent can cause or threaten bodily injury, illness, damage to human health, human welfare or property.

8. General Conditions

8.1 Due diligence

You must take all reasonable care to prevent loss, destruction, expense, or damage covered by this Policy.

8.2 Paying your premium

We will let you know how much premium you need to pay us, how to pay it and when. If you don't pay the premium your Policy may be cancelled and we'll write to let you know when this will happen.

8.3 Changing your Policy

If you want to make a change to this Policy, the change becomes effective when:

- (a) we agree to it,
- (b) we give you a new Policy Schedule detailing the change.

8.4 Other interests

You must not transfer any interests in this Policy without our written consent.

Any person whose interests you have told us about and we have noted on your Policy Schedule is bound by the terms of this Policy in relation to any claim they make.

8.5 Cancelling your Policy

8.5.1 How you may cancel this Policy

You may cancel this Policy at any time prior to any removal of your property taking place, by giving notice to your financial services provider. You cannot cancel this Policy once any removal has commenced.

Provided the Policy is cancelled prior to the removalist starting to pack or move the insured property, we will refund to you the premium. The amount of the premium we refund to you will be less any non-refundable government fees, duties or charges.

If there are other people named as insured on your Policy, we may rely on a request from one insured to cancel your Policy.

8.5.2 How we may cancel this Policy

We may cancel this Policy in any of the circumstances permitted by law (for example, failure to pay the premium by the due date or if you told us something that you knew to be incorrect or untrue during your application for cover) by informing you in writing.

We'll give you notice in person or send it to your address (including an electronic address) last known to us.

8.6 Sending you documents

We may send letters, policy and other related documents to you. If we email them to you, we'll consider the email to be received by you 24 hours after we send it.

Please make sure we have your current email and mailing address on record and let us know as soon as these change.

8.7 When your property arrives

When your property is delivered to you at your new home, you will be asked to sign a delivery docket stating that it has been received and that there is nothing missing or damaged. You should not sign this unless you are satisfied that all your property has been received and is in good order. If you don't have sufficient time to check all your property, you can sign the delivery docket, but endorse it with the words 'Subject to checking when unpacked'.

8.8 Pre-shipment condition and valuation survey

For motor vehicles, motorcycles, boats, caravans and trailers, we require an independent pre-shipment survey to record the condition and current market value.

9. Claims

9.1 What you must do

If you notice any of your property to be missing, or damaged, either on delivery or shortly afterwards, you must as soon as possible:

- (a) take whatever steps are necessary to prevent further loss or damage,
- (b) advise the removalist who delivered your property,
- (c) complete our claim form and any other form we ask you to complete and send it to our claims department at any of our offices. Our claim form is available from your financial services provider or you may download it from our website at www.qbe.com.au,
- (d) do not repair or replace anything until you have obtained our approval (which will not be unreasonably withheld).

9.2 What happens next

We will contact you and advise you what to do next. You may be asked to provide such things as shipping documents and repair/replacement quotations.

When you have completed the claim form, answered any questions we may have asked and supplied the documents we may have requested, we will consider the best way to handle your claim.

It may be that we do not consider the loss or damage is covered by this Policy. Whatever our decision, we will write to you and clearly explain our reasons.

9.3 How claims administration and legal proceedings are undertaken

When we pay a claim under your Policy, we have the right to exercise your legal rights in your name against the person responsible for the loss or damage.

We'll take full control of the administration, conduct and settlement of the recovery, including any legal defence. When we do any of these things in your name, it will be at our expense, however you'll need to give us reasonable assistance. This may include following our directions in relation to the conduct of any legal proceedings even after a claim has been paid. During the administration, conduct or settlement of the recovery, you can seek an update on the status of proceedings and we will consult you where appropriate.

When we pay a claim and some of the loss isn't covered by your Policy, we may offer to try to recover that loss for you when we take any steps to recover the covered loss. We can only do so if you agree to give us documents that support your loss and agree with us on how we'll handle that recovery.

You may also need to contribute to the associated costs if, to recover the loss for you, we need to take additional steps that we wouldn't otherwise need to take. We will talk to you about these steps before we take them.

If you've received a benefit under your Policy that you were not entitled to, we reserve the right to recover from you the amount we have paid. If we decline a claim for fraud, we reserve the right to recover our reasonable administration, investigation and legal costs.

9.4 What can affect a claim

We will reduce the amount of a claim by the excess(es) shown in the Policy terms and conditions or on the Policy Schedule.

We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim if you are in breach of your duty of disclosure or any of the conditions of this Policy, including any endorsements noted on or attached to the Policy Schedule.

We pay only once for loss or damage from the same event covered by this Policy, even if it is covered under more than one part of the Policy.

We may be entitled to refuse to pay or to reduce the amount of a claim if:

- (a) it is in any way fraudulent
- (b) any fraudulent means or devices are used by you or anyone acting on your behalf to obtain any benefits under this Policy.

9.5 Preventing our right of recovery

If you've agreed with or told someone who caused you loss, damage or liability covered by your Policy that you will not hold them responsible then, to the extent we've been prejudiced by this act, we will not cover you for that loss, damage or liability.

9.6 How the Goods and Services Tax (GST) affects any payments we make

The amount of premium payable by you for this Policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay. When you are: (a) not registered for GST, the amount we pay is the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover including GST. (b) registered for GST, we will pay the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance and where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a Damaged item insured under the Policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled if you made a relevant acquisition. In these circumstances, the Input Tax Credit may be claimable through your Business Activity Statement (BAS). You must advise us of your correct Australian Business Number & Taxable Percentage. Any GST liability arising from your incorrect advice is payable by you.

Where the settlement of your claim is less than the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover, we will only pay an amount for GST (less your entitlement for Input Tax Credit) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST relating to our settlement of the claim. We will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of yours which is relevant to your claim. GST, Input Tax Credit (ITC), Business Activity Statement (BAS) and Acquisition have the same meaning as given to those expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and related legislation as amended from time to time.

Taxable Percentage is your entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on your premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium.

Important Information

Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty, under both the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) and the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth), to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for, or
- is common knowledge, or
- we know or should know as an insurer, or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth) applies:

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may avoid the contract of insurance from its beginning.

Where the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) applies:

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Sometimes we might send your personal information overseas. The locations we send it to can vary but include the Philippines, India, Ireland, the UK, the US, China and countries within the European Union.

Our Privacy Policy describes in detail where and from whom we collect personal information, as well as where we store it and the full list of ways we could use it. To get a free copy of it please visit qbe.com.au/privacy or contact QBE Customer Care.

It's up to you to decide whether to give us your personal information, but without it we might not be able to do business with you, including not paying your claim.

Step 1 – Talk to us

If there's something you'd like to talk to us about, or if you'd like to make a complaint, speak to one of our staff. When you make your complaint please provide as much information as possible. They're ready to help resolve your issue.

You can also contact our Customer Care Unit directly to make your complaint. Our aim is to resolve all complaints within 15 business days.

Step 2 – Escalate your complaint

If we haven't responded to your complaint within 15 days, or if you're not happy with how we've tried to resolve it, you can ask for your complaint to be escalated for an Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) review by a Dispute Resolution Specialist.

The Dispute Resolution Specialist will provide QBE's final decision within 15 business days of your complaint being escalated, unless they've requested and you've agreed to give us more time.

Step 3 – Still not resolved?

If you're not happy with the final decision, or if we've taken more than 45 days to respond to you from the date you first made your complaint, you can contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body.

AFCA resolves insurance disputes between consumers and insurers, at no cost to you. QBE is bound by AFCA decisions - but you're not. You can contact AFCA directly and they'll advise you if your dispute falls within their Rules.

Disputes not covered by the AFCA Rules

Shut-out clause

In the event of the goods being 'shut-out' from the conveyance at an intermediate place during the course of transit, this insurance covers the goods whilst waiting for an alternative conveyance provided the goods are stored in a secure area, but excluding any loss or damage caused by delay.

Overcarried clause

Should the goods be over-carried to a different destination, this insurance covers the goods until returned to the original destination.

Removal of debris/Clean-up costs

This insurance covers all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in unloading, removing and disposing of damaged goods and clean-up of the accident site after the occurrence of an insured event. Subject to a limit of $50,000 any one (1) loss or series of losses caused by the one (1) event, unless otherwise specified in the Policy Schedule and provided the costs are not recoverable under any other policy of insurance.

Where dangerous goods are specified in the Policy Schedule this removal of debris/clean-up costs benefit does not apply.

Re-securing

This insurance covers all reasonable costs and expenses incurred in re-securing the goods where there has been movement of the goods in transit, which makes re-securing necessary, even though there may be no claim resulting from the incident provided these circumstances were outside your control and you could not reasonably be expected to have knowledge of them in your normal course of your business.

Subject to a limit of $5,000 any one (1) incident, unless otherwise specified in the Policy Schedule and provided these costs are not recoverable under any other policy of insurance.

Transfer/onforwarding clause

Where, due to an event covered by this insurance, the transit is terminated short of the intended destination this insurance covers all reasonable costs incurred in transferring, storing and forwarding the goods to the original destination in Australia. Section 7 – General conditions – Applicable to all sections

Alteration of risk

If there is any change in the circumstances or nature of the risks covered by this insurance, you must give us immediate notice or we may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract to the extent they are prejudiced (which may reduce a claim to nil) unless we have agreed to the change in writing.

Benefit of insurance

The carrier or any other bailee can not claim any benefit under this Policy. Your rights under this Policy are not prejudiced by any agreement exempting the carrier from liability.

Law and practice

This insurance is subject to Australian federal law and practice.

Third party interests

You must inform us of the interests of all third parties (e.g. financiers or lessors) to be covered by this insurance. The insurers protect the interests of third parties only if you have informed them and the interest(s) are noted in the Policy Schedule.

Other insurance

This insurance does not cover any loss or damage which, at the time of the accident:

- is insured by, or
- would, but for the existence of this Policy, have been insured by any other existing policy or policies except to the extent that the amount claimed exceeds the amount that would have been payable under the other policy or policies had this insurance not been effected.

Warranties

Any warranties specified in the Policy Schedule are to be regarded as conditions of the contract of insurance.

Underinsurance

We require you to insure for the full value or maximum potential risk. If you do not do so, and you are underinsured, we may pay you less in the event of a claim, calculated in accordance with either the policy wording or the Marine Insurance Act 1909 where applicable, which takes into account the degree of underinsurance

Section 8 – Claims

How much we pay

The amount payable, at our option, will be either:

- the cost of repairing or replacing lost or damaged goods including freight costs, or
- the actual value of the lost or damaged goods at the time of loss (i.e. unless the goods were new an amount for depreciation and wear and tear will be deducted from the claim) including freight costs.

This amount will be subject to the limit of liability stated in the Policy Schedule.

Brands/labels clause

In the event of loss of or damage to goods bearing embossed or indented brands or labels or other permanent markings identifying you as the manufacturer or supplier, or exclusive and/or secret formula that may be involved, the goods may be retained by you to dispose of as you see fit provided a reasonable allowance is agreed for the value of the goods.

Where only the labels of the goods are affected by an insured event, the amount payable by us is limited to the cost of reconditioning and the costs of relabelling.

Excess

The amount stated in the Policy Schedule as the excess will be deducted from each and every claim.

Limit of liability

Our liability is limited to the amount stated in the Policy Schedule for any one accident or series of accidents caused by the one event.

New machinery replacement clause

Where loss or damage to any part or parts of an insured machine is caused by an insured event, the amount we pay will be:

- the cost of replacement or repair of the part or parts, and
- additional charges for forwarding and refitting.

Subject to our liability not exceeding the value of the complete machine.

Pairs and sets clause

Where any item is part of a pair or set, the insurance will only pay for the part of the pair or set which is lost or destroyed even if it can not be replaced with a matching item. The value of the goods shall be regarded as spread over the whole of the pair or set, divided in the proportions that it would cost to replace all the items making up the pair or set.

Secondhand replacement clause

Where the loss of or damage to the goods is caused by an insured event and new parts are used in replacement or repair, the amount we pay will be:

- the proportion of the cost of replacement parts lost or damaged as the amount insured bears to the value of an equivalent new unit, plus
- additional charges for forwarding and refitting the new part or parts if incurred.

Subject to our liability not exceeding the value of the goods.

What you must do

Following an event that is likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy, you must take the following steps:

1. Immediate action

- Take all reasonable measures to avoid or minimise any loss, damage or expense (the reasonable and necessary cost of doing this will be payable by us).
- Inform the police as soon as possible after a theft is discovered.

2. Notification

- Inform us of the event as soon as possible.
- Submit to us full written particulars as soon as possible.
- Send to us all correspondence and documents relating to the event.
- Provide or arrange for us to be provided with invoices, statements and other documents evidencing the amount of the loss.

3. When other parties may be liable

- When another party may be liable to you for the loss, damage or liability you must:
 - not agree to release those parties from liability,
 - hold that party liable by delivering a notice of intention to claim,
 - in no circumstances, except under written protest, give clean receipts where the goods are in doubtful condition.

4. When delivery is made by container

When delivery is made by container, ensure that the container and seals are examined immediately by the responsible official. If the container is delivered damaged or with the seals broken or damaged or with seals other than stated in the shipping documents, note the delivery docket accordingly and retain all defective or irregular seals for subsequent identification.

5. If the loss or damage was not immediately apparent

If the loss or damage was not immediately apparent at the time of delivery, apply immediately for surveys by the carriers or other bailees to be conducted within three (3) days of delivery.

6. Inform us

Inform us of the circumstances and let us have a copy of all relevant documents.

We may exercise all your legal rights relating to the loss or damage. We may prosecute or defend any legal proceedings in your name and have full discretion in the exercise of your legal rights.

Measures taken by you or us with the object of saving, protecting or recovering the goods insured shall not be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment or otherwise prejudice the rights of either party.

Claims documentation

To enable claims to be dealt with promptly, you are advised to submit all available supporting documents without delay, including where applicable:

1. Original contract of carriage, consignment note or other contract of carriage.
2. Original or a copy of shipping invoices, shipping specifications, weight notes, packing, lists, sales invoices or other documents evidencing value.
3. Survey report or other documentary evidence to show the extent of the loss or damage.
4. Delivery docket and weight notes at final destination.
5. Correspondence exchanged with carriers and other parties regarding their liability for the loss or damage.

Important: Failure to comply with any of the conditions regarding claims procedures and documentation in this Policy may prejudice any claim you make.

Other important details

General average

In the event of a 'General average contribution arising under this Policy, contact us before signing any 'General average bond'.

Fraudulent claims

If any claim is fraudulent or false in any respect we may refuse to pay all or part of the claim, to the extent permitted by law.

We may also be entitled to cancel this Policy.

How the Goods and Services Tax affects any payments we make

The amount of premium payable by you for this Policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay.

When you are:

- (a) not registered for GST, the amount we pay is the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover including GST;
- (b) registered for GST, we will pay the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance and where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a Damaged item insured under the Policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled if you made a relevant acquisition. In these circumstances, the Input Tax Credit may be claimable through your Business Activity Statement (BAS).

You must advise us of your correct Australian Business Number & Taxable Percentage.

Any GST liability arising from your incorrect advice is payable by you.

Where the settlement of your claim is less than the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover, we will only pay an amount for GST (less your entitlement for Input Tax Credit) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST relating to our settlement of the claim.

We will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of yours which is relevant to your claim.

GST, Input Tax Credit (ITC), Business Activity Statement (BAS) and Acquisition have the same meaning as given to those expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and related legislation as amended from time to time.

Taxable Percentage is your entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on your premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium.
